

Deuteronomy

Introduction

Genesis

Deals with the problem of sin as described in Genesis 3

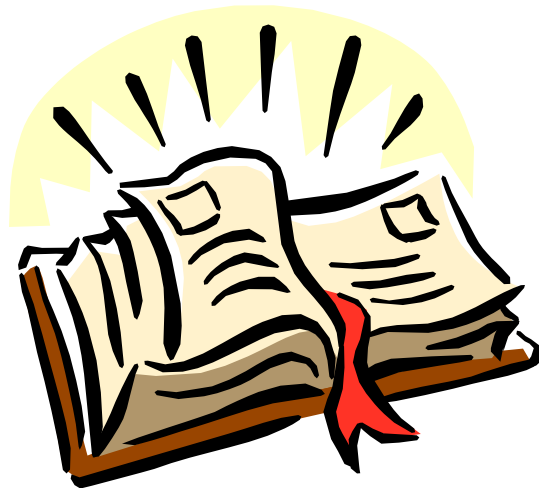

Exodus

Development of that purpose and promise into the nation of Israel and the redemption of the nation of Israel

Leviticus

Sets for the worship of the nation

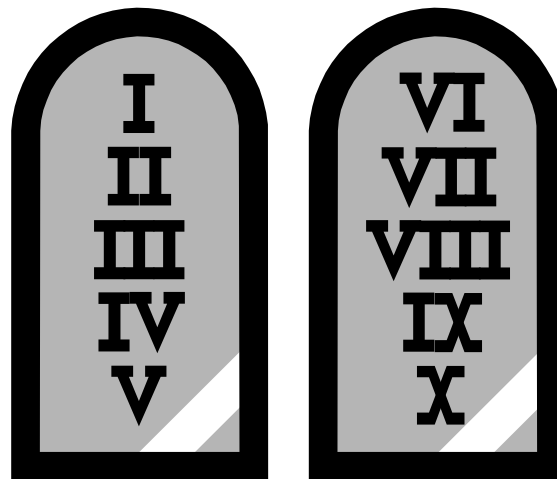

Numbers

Shows the pilgrimages of faith, the power of faith, and the besetting sin of unbelief.

Deuteronomy

Last words of Moses

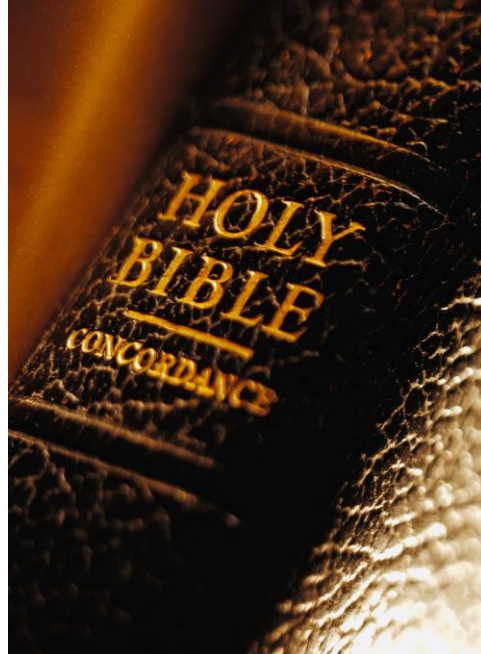

We need to see the Value and Importance of the place Of the book of Deuteronomy.

- The nation was to carry the name of Jehovah into the land of Canaan and establish it there.
- They were to rid Canaan of Idolatry
- Deuteronomy sets forth principles that keep a person from failing in his service to God.

The book of Deuteronomy sets forth the spiritual qualities that belong to the Jewish system.

The obedience of faith from the entire five books of Moses must have as its motivation the love for God.

Deuteronomy will show why the first generation failed to think about God's goodness because they failed to REMEMBER was emphasized over and over.

The faith that leads on to obey and serve God successfully must be Bible based and in the heart.

Moses will discuss blessings and alternatives

